SUNTECK APPOINTS GENERAL MANAGER OF BUSINESS SERVICES

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 1, 2008 – Boca Raton, Fla. – Sunteck Transport Group, a non-asset based provider of transportation services, has hired John Cordle as general manager, business services. In this new role, Cordle will be responsible for directing key business and administrative departments, including credit, customer billing, accounts payable, collections, and human resources. He will be responsible for complete process management within each of these key areas.

Cordle has more than a decade of performance-driven experience in supply chain management, purchasing and logistics planning. Prior to joining Sunteck, he was with Harte-Hanks in Deerfield, Beach, Fla. for 11 years, most recently serving as director of service operations. Cordle began with Harte-Hanks in 1997 and served in positions of increasing responsibility, culminating in his final assignment as director. Before Harte-Hanks, Cordle was terminal manager for Transport South in Memphis, Tenn.

Cordle also was an officer in the United States Army, having been promoted to numerous leadership positions in the U.S., Europe and the Middle East. When in the Army, he received the Draper Armor Leadership Award, 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment.

Cordle received a U.S. Army four-year scholarship award to attend The Citadel, Charleston, S.C., where he graduated with a B.A in Psychology. He also holds a M.S. in Business Administration from Boston University, Boston, Mass.

“We’re pleased to have an executive of John’s caliber join our organization,” said Mike Williams, chief operating officer, Sunteck Transport Group. “His experience and leadership talents will be invaluable as we continue our pursuit of excellence in the formulation and administration of our internal and external processes in service to our external offices and customers.”
